Newsletter
Winter 2017

As our final newsletter of 2017 reaches you, the EECF office is awash with excitement and thanks.

Firstly, thank you to all of those taking part in our food bag appeal. Although it takes a great deal of time and co-ordination, it is easy to see why this is such a popular initiative. With 1 in 2 elders in the East End living in isolation, reaching those genuinely in need of support is both heart-warming and rewarding. It's simple yet effective and we really appreciate you working with us to make it such a success.

Secondly, thank you also for working with us on Newham Giving. Similar to the food bags, this initiative co-ordinates donations to provide children with positive holiday activities to keep them safe and engaged. Stephen Timms MP, an ambassador for the fund, supported Newham Giving Day when lots of fun events were taking place. You can read more below.

Finally, on behalf of my staff and trustees, we send you seasons greeting and a huge Thank You for working with to reach those most in need of our support. We are dedicated to ensuring your charitable giving has the greatest impact.

Chief Executive

EECF's Christmas Food Bags Appeal

Our annual Christmas Food Bag appeal 2017 is in full swing with volunteers out and about helping to bring Christmas cheer to the local community.

This year our corporate partners have filled our volunteer spaces in record time, however donations in kind still allow for our volunteers to distribute even more bags to those in isolation this Christmas.

EECF's first ever Newham Giving Day Raises a fantastic £3532.90 for young peoples activities over the summer holidays

A huge THANK YOU to everyone who participated in our first ever Newham Giving Day, an initiative to help provide projects that give a lifeline to families struggling to provide engaging activities for children and young people during the school holidays.

Participants did everything from bake sales, raffles, to coming to work in fancy dress totalling £3,532.90. Many thanks to Stephen Timms, MP for East Ham, for his continued support of Newham Giving Day.

Festive celebration with local community and award winning beneficiaries

East End Community Foundation enjoyed an end of year celebration at Jack Dash House to commemorate the hard work and successes of the local communities and charities that we support throughout East London.

Mince pies, mulled wine and canapés were enjoyed while awards were presented throughout the night to the organisations that had worked tirelessly to help make a difference to the lives of people in the East End.

Philanthropy Club Event at Morton's in Mayfair

On Thursday 23rd November EECF held our Philanthropy Club meet in the beautiful surroundings of Morton's in Mayfair. The intimate event brought together Club members and their guests to learn about the philanthropist's journey from Emma Turner, a respected philanthropy adviser at Barclays Private Bank.

A massive thank you to Delancey who facilitated this successful event.
